Dear J.R. —

Yesterday 7-19-84 I became aware of something which helps me come to a new understanding, but also I saw something I feel was meant for you. I am not sure. I meditated on whether to write and decided you know what to accept and reject and will offer you what I saw and leave it to you as to if it means anything to you.

While talking with some friends, I suddenly became aware of the Christing which seems to be taking place in your life. I saw the man J.R. who is ever becoming more and more at one with Light reach the level where soul and spirit meet. I saw the level I would call at one ment in spirit and how at one point in this realm within the Father Mother Light something stirs and a part of itself descends and becomes a soul - a child of God. I saw you coming back up into this point where soul + spirit meet and you becoming aware of your sonship. I heard within, when the child returns and understands its heritage it then understands the parents. And so it is with your soul, you now know your heritage and now you understand your parents, Father Mother God. In the understanding comes the Christing, the being a perfect child of God and living the perfection within.

I then was shown how the Traveller has worked through you and with you all of these years and how it has lifted all into Light. And now for the greatest good of all you are being lifted up to this point on the path. personally as you and the Traveller might lift even more souls to God.

I do not know if people will see a change or if the man J.R. will change that much but I see a greater light in your heart and in your soul than I have ever seen before. I feel I need to say that this does not mean you have to be perfect in flesh for the world is not the world of perfection

you are perfect in spirit and it is that perfection God seeks.

I trust this makes some sense to you as you leave on your trip to the Middle East. If I have misinterpreted what has been given, forgive me. I am not ~~not~~ sure why I was shown this except that maybe you need to hear it from yet another outside source to confirm what you already know.
Enjoy your trip. You have been resurrected now enjoy you ascending to God.

I feel somewhat like a fool saying these things to you but I have learned that when the spirit ~~pushes~~ pushes you do and release, so God bless and safe journeys.

Love

P.S. Say hi to John Morton for me, he is truly a dear spiritual friend.
